Miss Helen Taft and Miss Anderson Guests of Mrs. Stimson at Luncheon

Miss Stone Honor Guest Miss May Power at Congressional Club Reception.

Mrs. Stimson, wife of the Secretary of War, who has as her house guest Miss Frances Gamble, of New York entertained at luncheon today, having as her principal guests, Miss Helen Taft and her cousin, Miss Harriet An derson, of Cincinnati. Others in the party were Miss Alys Meyer, Miss Hildegarde Nagel, Miss Frances Hodges Miss Mary Winslow, Miss Allen, Miss Ruggles, Miss Marion Oliver, and Miss Ratherine Weeks.

Miss Ellen M. Stone will be the gues of honor at the reception at the Congressional Club this afternoon.

Mrs. Roberts, president of the club and Miss Stone will receive the guests together, and among those assisting will be Mrs. Henry L. Myers, wife of Senstor Myers of Montana; Mrs. D. V. Stephens, wife of Congressman Stephens of Nebraska; Mrs. Julius Kahn, of California; Mrs. Eugene F. Kinkead, of New Jersey; Miss Beach, of Georgia, and Miss Brown, of Missouri.

Mrs. Hughes, of New Jersey, and Mrs. Humphrey, of Washington, will preside at the tea table, which will be adorned with a basket of pink tullps and mignonette.

Mrs. William M. Geddes, of 1313 Columbia road, has as her guest Mrs. M. A. McKelvey, of Chicago.

Mrs. Geddes will be at home informally Tuesdays March 5 and 19, from 3 to 6 o'clock, and will have with her Mrs. McKelvey and Mrs. Eond P. Caddes.

Mr. and Mrs. Kienlin Are Hosts at Dinner.

The Second Secretary of the German Embassy and Mrs. Kienlin entertained at dinner last evening the Postmaster General, Frank Hitchcock; the Coun-Mme. de Lima, the Naval Attache of the Russion Embassy and Mme. Vassilieff, the Military Attache of the German Embassy and Mme. von Herwarth, Mrs. McLachlan, wife of the military attache of the British embassy; Mme. Hauge, Miss Patten, Miss Helen Patten, Count du Monceau, of the Belgian legation; Mr. Dmitrow, of the Russian embassy, and Henry du Pont.

The date for the Oriental Russian embassy, and Henry du Pont.

Christian Hemmick, which was to have been given at the Playhouse on the oring of March 14 and 15 has been the detection of March 18, owing illness of Preston Gibson, who has enery for the play in charge.

If those who will be seen in this ful fairy play, which will excel Mrs. Hemmick's previous enternts, will be Nayrb, the wonderful who will make his debut in ligion; the well-known dancer, ea." who is Mrs. Florence Flemoyes, of Boston; Miss Elizabeth debut and her as a concert singer, and Louis son, a young tenor and a Washillness of Preston Gibson, who has

The unnual meeting of the electors of election of officers of the South-dustrial Educational Association as place in the official room Tues-tornoon, March 5, at 8:30 o clock. same evening the annual public will take place in the ballroom rlington Hotel at 8 o'clock. ssioner P. P. Claxton and Conn R. P. Hobson will be among kers.

nnis and august to Be Hosts. William F. Dennis and her r, Mrs. Charles Neison Riker, rich enertain at a tea for a number of son's debutantes this afternoon s until 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Bourne, and Mrs. talberson, will preside at the tea table, third on, will preside at the tea table, hich will be adorned with a centerpiece of pink Killarney .co25 and cannot with pink silk shades.

The drawing room, where Mrs. Dender of Mrs. Riker will receive the the decorations will be of palms. can Benuty roses and Killarney

Mr. Dennis will wear a gown of kings blue satin with a tunic of black the md oriental embreidery. Mrs. Risser's gown will be of American Reauty satin with an over drapery of

Stops Falling Hair and

Destroys Dandruff

lakes the Hair Grow Long, Heavy

and Luxuriant and We Can

Quickly Prove It

If You Wish to Double the Beauty of

Your Hair at Once, Just Get a 25

Cent Bottle and Try This

Surely try a Danderine Hair Cleanse if you wish o immediately double the beauty of your hair with ittle trouble and at a cost not worth mentioning—ust moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and lraw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil-In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wayy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff;

cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. It's exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

shimmer of true hair health.

stopping itching and falling hair.

Mrs. Fairchild, wife of Congressman Fairchild of New York, has returned to Washington after a ten days' visit in New York.

Hostess at I ea

Miss May Power will entertain a few young people informally at tea this afternoon from 5 until 6 o'clock in her partment in the Champlain to meet her louse guest, Miss Gladys Hetherington The tea table, which will be preside ver by Mrs. Stewart L. Barber and Mrs. Reid Hunt, will be adorned for the occasion with a centerplece of ferns and pink tulips and candles with pink silk shades. Others assisting in the dining room will be Miss Ruth Bliss, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Miss Margaret Knight, and Miss Judith Ives.

Mrs. J. Burnet Crane, who spent the last two weeks in Mississippi, has returned to Washington and joined her daughters at their residence in Twen-Congressman Deizell of Pennsylvania and his daughter, Mrs. George M. Dunn, will return to Washington this evening from Atlantic City, where they spent the last few days.

Mrs. Biddle, wife of the commandant of the Marine Corps, has invitations out for a card party on Thursday, March 7.

Lady Jebb, of England, who is spending the season in Washington, was the guest in honor of whom Mrs. George Bolling entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon in her apartment in the Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wilkins enter-tained at dinner last evening.

Miss Miriam Hammer

and Murray S. Smith Wed.

The marriage of Miss Miriam Hammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Newton Hammer, to Murray Stove Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bathurst Lee Smith, of Knoxville, Tenn., took place last evening at 7 o'clock, at the bride's home, 2607 Eleventh street. The Rev. Samuel H. Greene, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church performed the wedding ceremony, which was attended chestra from the Washington Symphony Orchestra played for the reception.

The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of rich white duchess satin made on empire lines, with trimmings of rose point lace on the bodice. In her hair she wore a pearl ornament the gift of her mother, and her only other ornament was a pearl brooch, the bridegroom's gift. She carried a shower bounder of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Newton T. Hammer was best man for Mr. Smith.

An aisle through which the wedding An alsie through which the wedding party passed was formed by a group of classmates of the bride at the Central High School. In the party was Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Hunting, Miss Ethel Summy, Miss Naomi Seltzer. Miss Heidenreich, Miss Ernnie Steinberg, Miss Leota Williams, Frank Sunny, Frank Bath, and Willier Scheetz.

Frank Sunny, Frank Bath, and Willier Scheetz.

Mrs. Hammer, who assisted her daughter and son-in-law in receiving the guests, wore a gown of black duchess satin made with a fichu and tunic of rare old black silk lace, which was a part of the trousseau of Mrs. Hammer's great-grandmother ninety years ago.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Washington for a wedding trip, the latter traveling in a tailored suit of wisteria broadcloth with a hat of the same shade. After March 15 they of the same shade. After March 15 the will be at home at 713 West Cumberland gent, U. S. A.,

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Becker en-

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Becker entertained at dinner last night at their residence on Rhode Island avenue.

Miss Catherine Cameron was hostess at a small Lean Year cotillion last night at her N street residence. There were just fifty guests including Miss Helen Taft and Miss Catherine Anderson.

James Byrnes, the famous New York rag time planist played for the dancing. Miss Catherine Cameron, assisted by Mr. de Bach, of the Russian embassy, led the cotillion, for which the favors were drums, horns, mouth organs, music boxes, dolla and rattles, besides spangled chiffon scarfs and artificial flowers, desk sets and cigarette light-spangled chiffon scarts and artificial flowers, desk sets and cigarette lighters, which the hostess brought with her from Parls last summer.

All Leap Year traditions were strictly adhered to, the women asking the men to dance and escorting them to the buffet supper which was served at 1 o'clock. A feature of the supper was a birthday case adorred with candles a birthday cake adorned with candles for Mr. Algara, of the Mexican em-baser.

Miss Gwenfra Williams, of London, is the house guest of the Misses Camer-on.

anderme

President and Mrs. Taft Guests of Secretary and Mrs. Stimson.

The President and Mrs. Taft were the guests of the Secretary of War and Mrs. Stimson last evening at the last of the series of Cabinet dinners in honor of the Chief Executive.

The additional guests were Mr. Justice and Mrs. Hughes, Senator Root, Chief of Staff and Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Sheffield, and Mr. and Mrs. William D. Guthrie, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wharton Pepper, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Farnam, of New Haven, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griscom, Miss Hegeman, and Miss Frances Gam-

The Counselor of the German Embassy and Mrs. Haniel von Haimhausen entertained at dinner last evening at their residence in H street. Covers were laid for sixteen guests.

Fashionable Audience At Second Lenten Tea.

One of the smartest andlences of the season filled the Playhouse yesterday afternoon for the second in the series of lenten musical teas arranged by Mrs. Wilson-Greene.

The artist of the afternoon was Mme. Jeanne Jomelli, soprano soloist, who was accompanied on the plane by Harold Osborne Smith.

The tea room was in charge of a group of young women from the Chevy Chase College.

In the audience were Mrs. Dickinson, wife of the Secretary of War; Mrs. Robert Hinckley, Miss Gladys Hinckley, Mrs. William Manning Irwin, Miss Irwin, Miss Mary Irwin, Mrs. William F. Dennis, Mrs. Riker, Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. Gheen, Miss Gheen, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mrs. Longworth, Mrs. Buckner Randelph, Mrs. Aldrad E. Bates, Mme. Ekengren, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Alexander Britton, Mrs. Jenkins, Mis; Mattis, Mrs. Cromwell, Mrs. Robert, Owen, Mrs. William Barret Ridgely, Mrs. Wickersham, Mrs. James Dudley Mor-In the audience were Mrs. Dickinson Mickersham, Mrs. James Dudley Mor-gan, Mrs. Lee. Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Oxnard, Miss Pichon, Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Evans, and Mrs. Vandergrift.

Mr. and Mrs. Jusserand Guests in Baltimore.

The French Ambassador and Mme Jusserand went over to Baltimore yes terday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Marburg at dinner and the opera. Asked to meet them the dinner were the Governor of Mary land and Mrs. Goldsborough, Mr. and Mrs. Graun M. Hutton, Miss Marie Grainger, of Wilmington, N. C., Miss Christine Marburg, and Horace White.

Charles W. Littlefield, formerly pay director of the navy, and Mrs. Littlefield, who now are at Palm Beach, will come to Washington for the spring season.

Mrs. Gatewood, Miss Gatewood, Lieutenant Pryor, U. S. N., and Mrs. Pryor, Lieutenant Commander Smith, U. S. A., and Mrs. Smith, Lieutenant Woodson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Woodson, Dr. Webb, U. S. A., and Mrs. Webb, and Mr. and Mrs. Keene.

Rear Admiral John McGowan, U. S. N., and Miss McGowan were the guests of Mrs. George Huntington Williams, at the opera in Baltimore last night.

Col. and Mrs. Charles L. McCawley, U. S. M. C., were among those enter-taining at dinner last evening.

Thomas Leiter is the name Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter have chosen for their infant son, born last Sunday morning. Joseph Leiter, jr., now is just about twenty months the senior of the new baby.

Octagon Club Gives Leap Year Dance.

An enjoyable Leap Year dance was given last evening to the members of the Octagon Club, in the ball room of the Cairo.

Dancing was enjoyed until midnight, when a buffet supper was served. The ball room was elaborately decorated with the club colors and greens,

The guests were Miss Annette Gold.

The guests were Miss Annette Goldsmith, Miss Ernestine Rich, Miss Belle Schiffman, Miss Rhoda Mautner, Miss Muriel Ruppaport, Miss Helene Hoffa, Miss Dora Schiffman, Miss Irene Ernstein, Miss Florence Cohen, Miss Louise Ernstein, Miss Emille Hillman, Miss Jennte Rice, of Chicago: Miss Helen Jonas, of Nashville, Tenn: Miss Louise Ernstein, Miss Florence Gusdorf, Miss Selma Kahn, Miss Lena Stern, Miss Selma Kahn, Miss Lena Stern, Miss Selma Kahn, Miss Rena Fleishman, Miss Edna Burnstein, of Fargo, N. D.; Miss Edith Strasburger, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kronheim, Lester Neuman, Arthur Neuman, Melville Fischer, Alma Neumeyer, Milton Goldsmith, Norman Fischer, Joseph Kaufman, Alfred Stern, Bert Cohen, Leroy King, Alfred Haas, Stanley Fischer, Herbert Jacob, Lester Marx, Dave Baer, Bernard Baer, Maury Simon, Lawrence Gassenheimer, Eugene Young, and Maurice Eiseman.

Mrs. Rae Wertheimer, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. I. Strasburger, of Columbia road, has returned to her home in Norfolk.

She Told Him.

Among the passengers in the trolley car was a middleaged woman with a boy about five years old beside her. His questions and antics attracted general attention. He wanted to walk up and down the aisle; he wanted to stand on the seat; he wanted to sit on her lap; he wanted peanuts and candy. Then he asked her where his papa was; when they would be home; why the man op-posite had no hair on his head; why the next man was fat. It was all very innocent until the boy walked to the front of the car and kicked a man on the shin. Then the man stood up and roared at the wom-

"That boy is a nuisance, madam!"
"Yes," she replied.
"You see it and know it!"
"Yes!" And yet you don't even chide him?

"No."
But why don't you-why?"
"Because I am his step-mother!" was the calm reply, as the woman snugged down into her seat again.

Least Resistance.

"Hello! Is that the information ed tor?" asked a voice through the tele-

"Please tell me how many inches there re in a meter."
"Haven't you a dictionary in your "Yes, but it's less trouble to call you up and ask."—Chicago Tribune.

Plausible.

Why do they call Washington the occasion.

The guests were Captain Dorn, U. S.
N., and Mrs. Dorn, Captain Willis, U.
S. M. C., and Mrs. Willis, Captain Nugent, U. S. A., and Mrs. Nugent, Medical Inspector Gatewood, U. S. N., and get."—Louisville Courier-Journal, city of magnificient distances?"

Your own senses tell you it is good.

The inviting fragrance of Campbell's Tomato Soup; its rich natural color: its smacking taste all say as plain as words: "Here is wholesome nourishing soup. It will do you good."

And your senses tell you right: for only the wholesome quality which comes from choice and pure materials skilfully blended can give any soup such a tempting and satisfying flavor.

Order a dozen at a time. Then you'll never be disappointed at the dinner hour.

21 kinds 10c a can Look for the red-and-white label

Eampbella. Soups

Newport Bar Hurbor

A. SCHMIDT & SON

Importers of Old and Modern Sheffield Plate... English, Dutch, French and Hanau Silver...Fine English and French China and Garnitures in Exclusive Designs Suitable for Wedding Presents at Very Reasonable Prices.

1216 CONNECTICUT AVE. Corner Jefferson Place

Telephone North 3907

Seen in the Shops

Chiffon separate waists will be an ab solute necessity for wear with the spring tailor-made dress. A store in G street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, has a fine assortment of these walsts in all sizes, which are offered for $5.98. Some are made over cream lace and trimmed with contrasting colors. Others are backed with soft messaline and trimmed with the new shadow lace, and still others are trimmed with fancy buttons, fringe, and tucks. All colors from white to black are included in this Lingerie frocks, while still a little uneasonable for general wear, always find a place in a woman's wardrobe for evening wear, and will be found useful later for afternoon wear. In a store in Market place, near Eighth street, is shown a dainty little model made of cluny lace bands, joined with bands of batiste embroidery in a blind and openwork design. It is made in the one-piece style, with little set-in puffed sleeves, and the price is only $11.95.

Lenten menus call for appropriate dishes. This same store is offering at the very moderate price of $4.50 a fish set consisting of twelve serving plates and a large platter. The dishes are decorated with a design of fish, swimming quite naturally in a pool of water and surrounded by watercress and seaweed. The color scheme is green and white, and the set is decidedly artistic. place in a woman's wardrobe for

An F street department store is showing some exquisite new lace collars which may be worn either outside the coat, or on the one-piece dresses. They come in the popular Dutch shape, but the distinctive feature is a little tablike arrangement in the back, slightly received. resembling a sailor collar, consisting of a lace motif. These little collars, which are decidedly chic, are marked $1.50 each.

In a little neckwear store in F street, near the corner of Twelfth, some of the prettlest of the new jabots and collars are being shown. A little Irish lace jabot with three ends is being sold for 50 cents, and a stock to match is the same price. A little bow, consisting of a fuffy rosette of maline, tied with a velvet knot, which is Enished at the ends with fringe, is also marked to cents. This bow comes in black and navy blue, and is intended to be worn outside the coat. Some neatly made lace guimpes with sleeves are oftered in this store for $1.

Sailor hats have already made their appearance, and some of the newest ones have a heavy rolled-up brim, and a medium; high grown. In all colors from black to white, and trimmed with l'ersian silk, which is draped around the hat and finished with a fat bow, they are offered in a G street millinery department, not far from Twelfth street, for $3.50.

FOR LITTLE FOLK JUST BEFORE BEDTIME

The Sandman's Stories

WHY THE RABBIT'S FOOT IS LUCKY.

bunny. She was an Angora rabbit and her fur was long and silky and her eyes were round and very pink, and her white nose was always going and down, up and down, just as was trying to smell new green to, or some other delicious thing bunnies love very much. Now, burse, as far as a description Fluffy was just like any little very round and very pink, and her little white nose was always going up and down, up and down, just as if it was trying to smell new green lettuce, or some other delicious thing that bunnies love very much. Now, of course, as far as a description goes, Fluffy was just like any little goes, Fluffy was just like any little Angora rabbit that lots of lucky little boys and girls nowadays have for a pet. But just the same, Fluffy wasn't like those ordinary bunnies at all, for Fluffy, you must know was a wish rabbit. And, besides, if it hadn't been for Fluffy there never would have been the belief that it is lucky to carry the hind foot of a rabbit.

Of course, one deesn't carry the hind foot of pretty little bunnies like Fluffy started home, looking very happy, and with her nose wiggling wery hard. That same night Fluffy's mistress had a dream. That is, she thought she did. You see, not knowing anything about the fairles, she did not know that it was all really, truly so, but imagined she was just dreaming.

But, anyway, Fluffy's little fairy was sitting at the foot of her bed talking to her.

"I've got something for you," said the fairy.

"And it's full of wishing water. I am going to give it to you, and when you want something just pour a little of it out and make the wish, and it will come true." Then the little fairy wanished.

But sure enough the next morning
Fluffy's mistress found a little bottle by the side of her bed. She jumped up and grabbed the bottle.

"Oh! send me a playmate, a real nice
"Oh! send me a playmate, a real nice
playmate, who will always keep me FLUFFY STARTED HOME LOOKING VERY HAPPY

Fluffy, but those from the ordinary little brown field bunnies. That's because the Fairles don't want all the little white bunnies killed for their pretty little feet.

But, to go back to the story of Fluffy. It was a long time ago, so long ago that people didn't know what two-story buildings were, or automobiles, or many of the things which make life so nice today. In fact, Fluffy's mistress lived in a hut on a hill. It had only one door and two little windows, one on cach side. One day Fluffy was sitting by the door eating large green lettuce leaves. And by her side was her mistress, her head in her hands, crying.

"I'm so lonesome," wept the little girl. "T want somebody to play with."

When Fluffy heard this she stopped wiggling her noce and looked up. Of course. Fluffy loved her mistress and At the extremely low price of 10 cents each, a Market space department store is selling little heavy glass dessert plates out glass inches in diameter. A little cut glass star is the only decoration on these decidedly artistic little bits of table wars.

If want somebody to play with." people won t nut you who will be stopped with the set of play with." I people won t nut you will be people with the set of play with." I people won t nut you will be people with the set of play with." I people won t nut you will be people will be people won t nut you will be people won t nut you will be people will be people won t nut you will be people will b LUFFY was a fat little white about bunnies could have told she was bunny. She was an Angora very excited.

Then Fluffy and the little fairy held a long conversation. After awhile Fluffy started home, looking very happy, and with her none wigging very hard. That same night Fluffy's mistress had a dream. That is, she thought she did. You see, not knowing anything about the fairles, she did not know that it was all really, truly so, but imagined she was just dreaming. But, anyway, Fluffy's little fairy was sitting at the foot of her bed talking to her.

"I've got something for you," said the fairy.

and grabbed the bottle.

"Oh! send me a playmate, a real nice playmate, who will always keep me company." That is what Fluffy's mistress wished, and as she did so she took the cork out of the bottle. She started to splil just a little bit, but her hand shook so from excitement that every bit of that wishing water went on the floor.

Woodward & Lothrop

New York-Washington-Paris.

FIRST SHOWING OF

New Spring Clothing and Apparel for Boys

These new and comprehensive assortments have been brought together unusually early this season and are distinguished by these features:

Styles-Whatever is New For Spring.

Fabrics of Unvarying Excellence.

Widest Assortments Ever Displayed.

Readiness for spring is the word in the boys' section and every need may be quickly and satisfactorily supplied.

Suits, sizes 8 to 18. The most important part of the boy's outfit is his suit, and he should be very particular about it. We have given a great deal of attention to our selections this year, and the stock is larger and better and contains more styles than ever before. Norfolk jacket, junior eton and double-breasted, made with yoke and plaits and without yoke, in all shades of gray, tan, brown, blue grays and navy blue.

Russian and Sailor Blouse Suits, sizes 2½ to 10. Plain colors and neat mixtures, handsomely designed and cleverly tailored; also Regulation Sailor style of navy blue serge.

Reefers, sizes 21/2 to 10. Allwool materials, in navy blue, tan shepherd plaids and other attractive fancy woven materials; all well tailored and perfect fitting, with self or velvet collars.

Washable Russian Blouse Suits, sizes $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 7. Shown in all the new spring models and effects, with sailor, eton or military collars; plain colors and a large showing of striped patterns, finished with braids.

Beach Rompers, sizes 3 to 8. A distinctly new garment just out this spring, made with short sleeves, low neck and loose fitting around knees; plain white and neat checked and striped materials.

A COMPLETE SHOWING OF OUTFITTINGS.

One way to find employment is to watch the

Felt Hats Caps

Straw Hats

Blouses Neckwear

Shirts

Pajamas Collars Etc.

Keep Right

Help Wanted columns of The Times each day. If you do not find the position you want the very first day you read these advertisements, keep at it! Read them every day. Do this, and sooner or later your opportunity will arrive. Washington's best employers use the Help Wanted columns of The Times because they have found by experience that it pays to and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Put It In The Times

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair,